

Next Town

(piano: Sloan Hayes, drums: Calvin Kelley, vibes: Jailan Jagne)

I'm coming home for good, Rosie.
Sometimes the city calls me,
makes me do things that I don't want to do.
Oh, I apologize to you.
I wouldn't leave you if I could.

*The next town it ain't what I needed.
It's only make believe.
The town that gives me everything,
it ain't somewhere else...
It's here. I'm home.*

There's way more to love here, Sadie.
I'm a complicated man
Although it never shows.
It was so cold in the next town, it felt like two below.
Was it Tupelo?

Chorus

So I just got here from Memphis, Lucy,
I crossed the river swinging low,
Oh, I told you so,
Our love, our love, our love can only grow.
I've come home to let you know.

Chorus
